

CREATE-A-SAURUS

Roll your dice to draw a dinosaur!

How to play

1. Everyone rolls three dice. Then swap one of your dice with the other player, so everyone still has three dice, but a slightly different three dice.
2. Use your three dice to choose between one and three dinosaur parts from the list. Adding dice together is allowed. For example, a player who has 1, 3, and 5 could get a beak and horns, or feathers and huge eyes, or could decide to just get tail spikes. Make a note of the numbers you chose on your paper.
3. Draw your dinosaur parts on your paper! You could use the template on the next page, or you could draw on a blank piece of paper.

Repeat these steps three times, then score.

- 2 Wings
- 3 Feathers
- 4 Beak
- 5 Horns
- 6 Huge eyes
- 7 Flippers
- 8 Scales
- 9 Tail spikes
- 10 Sharp teeth
- 11 Extra legs
- 12 Claws

List of dinosaur parts!

You need

- Pen and paper
- Three six-sided dice per person (You could ask Google to roll dice, or use www.rolladie.net)

Scoring

The game ends after three rounds. You get points if you managed to collect dinosaur body parts which are next to each other in the list. For example, 3, 4, 5 are three numbers all in a row.

A row of five = 5 points

A row of four = 3 points

A row of three = 2 points

A row of two = 1 point

The best drawn dinosaur = 1 extra point

Playing with more people

If you have two players, then you swap one of your dice and keep two dice.

If you have three players, swap one dice with one person and another dice with the other.

If you have more players, sit in a circle and swap once with the person on your right and once with the person on your left.
